

> home

Europe – Vast Potential!

With a value of €55 billion the European Medical Technology market is substantial and shows an annual growth of 7%. Europe offers a highly developed Healthcare System which serves over 400 million people. By consequence the need for innovative Medical Devices is vast.

Germany, France, UK, Italy and Spain are the most important countries for suppliers of Medical Devices. Combined these countries cover 70% of the total market need.

MedSupport Europe

The route for reducing time-to-market of your medical device