Inogen One Update II, November 2009

Dear Customer,

This is a second pre-announcement of the next INOGEN ONE – expected in early 2010.
We guessed you will be interested.

Why not offer the oxygen dependent patient a high performance, portable oxygen concentrator small enough to hold in your hand?

More news on INOGEN ONE G2 - the best portable oxygen concentrator yet - to follow shortly.

P.S. Key features:

- Weight of only 3 kg
- Very low sound level
- Small enough to hold in your hand
